COMMUNITY INFORMATION...

Barbara Kellner, Director of Columbia Archives, Presents a History of River Hill

The Village of River Hill is celebrating its 25th year and Columbia is celebrating its 50th Birthday. Both of these milestones are being commemorated during a presentation by Barbara Kellner, Director of Columbia Archives, on Wednesday, March 29 at 7:00 p.m. at Claret Hall, 6020 Daybreak Circle, in Clarksville.

PLEASE MAKE SURE YOUR STUDENT HAS TISSUES WITH HIM/HER.
Send in a box for the class!

Find out how the original plans for River Hill changed over the years to accommodate new ideas, needs and economic issues. Attendees will have the opportunity to view old photos and maps and learn about the game preserve that previously occupied the land now known as River Hill. Discover where all those unusual street names came from and much more during this entertaining evening full of River Hill and Columbia history.

The event is open to the public and is completely free. Pre-registration is requested by calling 410-531-1749. This event is sponsored by the River Hill Community Association and the Columbia Archives.
