The RHHS Theatre Arts Department announces auditions for Fall 2016 production of The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged) by The Reduced Shakespeare Company. Those who audition must prepare a Shakespearean monologue or Sonnet. Auditions are open to all River Hill students and will take place on June 6 in the auditorium beginning at 2:30. This includes current 8th graders who will be River Hill freshmen in the fall. Callbacks will be on June 7. If you plan to audition, sign up on the wall outside of the Theatre Arts room, 205. Current 8th graders planning to audition should email Mrs. Land so that she can send complete information and provide an audition time that is conducive to the MS dismissal. Email Mrs. Land to receive a detailed audition information packet. (pland@hcpss.org)

Get Your Glo On

"Get Your Glo On," is a party for middle school students! It is an opportunity for middle school students across Howard County to attend a safe, fun and healthy event. The proceeds from this event will benefit Grassroots, Howard County's only 24-hour crisis intervention center and homeless shelter. Glo for Grassroots is being presented by the Howard County Horizon Councils student leadership team and is being hosted by the Columbia Gym. Glo for Grassroots is this Saturday, May 21, 7:30-10 p.m. Carnival games, raffle prizes, dodge ball, DJ, refreshments and glo face paint will be featured. Students are encouraged to wear a white T-shirt for a better glo! Tickets are $10 and can be purchased at the door the night of the event. This event will be supervised by Columbia Gym staff, adult Horizon Council members,
